FIRST FLORIDA STUFFS OVER 100 STOCKINGS FOR KIDS

First Florida Credit Union teamed up with The Salvation Army to stuff Christmas stockings for children in the community.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA (Dec. 14th)– Employees at First Florida Credit Union recently filled over 100 Christmas stockings for The Salvation Army in Jacksonville.

As part of an annual tradition with The Salvation Army, First Florida employees volunteered to stuff stockings for needy children in the community. “This is the sixth year First Florida has participated and we are extremely proud of our staff’s contributions, especially in these hard economic times,” said Human Resource Assistant Rose Stadt.

First Florida is a long-time partner of The Salvation Army. Each month First Florida helps feed needy families at The Salvation Army’s downtown location.

First Florida, headquartered in Jacksonville, operates several branches throughout the state. Anyone who lives or works in any of the following Florida counties: Leon, Baker, Broward, Clay, Duval, Flagler, Orange, Hillsborough, Miami-Dade, Seminole, Nassau, and St. Johns is eligible to open an account. Additionally, employees of CSX Transportation and other specified companies are also eligible to join First Florida.
