

Privacy notice to members

First Florida Credit Union is committed to making available financial products and services that will enable you to meet your financial needs and reach your financial goals. Protecting personal information and using it in a manner consistent with your expectations is a high priority to everyone associated with First Florida Credit Union.

First Florida Credit Union collects non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms
- Information about your transactions with us or others
- Information we receive from a consumer-reporting agency

First Florida Credit Union will protect your personal information. We will only share information to administer the products and services we provide, and when required to do so by law. First Florida Credit Union restricts access to your personal and account information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.

If you decide to terminate your membership or become an inactive member, we will adhere to the privacy policies and practices described in this notice.
