FACTS

WHAT DOES FIRST FLORIDA CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number
- payment history
- credit history
- transaction or loss history
- credit card or other debt
- checking account information

Information Collected while Using the Application: While using Zelle®, to use the QR Code feature, with your prior permission, First Florida Credit Union may collect or access pictures and other information from your device's Contacts, Camera, and Photos.

Any information collected is used to provide features of the Zelle® service and/or to improve and customize the user experience. The information may be uploaded to our servers or it may be simply stored on your device. You can enable or disable access to this information at any time, through your device settings.

Who is providing this notice?

First Florida Credit Union

What we do

How does First Florida Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information and we limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.

How does First Florida Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Give us your income information
- Provide employment information
- show your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes-information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
